

GPS / Mapping Technology Awareness Day

Invitation

When: 8.30AM till 12.00PM Sunday 4th July 2010

Where: Ripley Valley Rural Fire Brigade Station
776 Ripley Road, Ripley (Near Cnr Centenary Hwy and Ripley Road)

RSVP: Matt Mulroney, Secretary - Ripley Valley RFB by 25th June 2010
Email: secretary@ripleyvalleyruralfire.org.au Ph. 0412 403 230

Program:

8.30AM Arrival and Coffee – Welcome by Mark Wallace QFRS
9.00AM Split Into Three 1 Hour Streams on a Rotational Basis

Stream One: Mapping Technology Overviews

The latest in Mapping Capabilities and Technologies
Presenter: Mark Wallace, Manager GIS for QFRS Rural Operations

Stream Two: Mapping/GPS Technology Practical Applications

- The Use of GPS and Mapping Solutions in Wildfire Management
- The Use of GPS and Mapping Solutions in Planning Hazard Reduction Burns
- The Pathfinder Function Role

Presenter: Jim Runham, Ripley Valley RFB

Stream Three: Remote IMT Operations with GPS/Mapping Technologies

- Interfacing with Air Operations
- Remote Technologies for Mobile Incident Management

Presenter: John Bowles, Ripley Valley RFB

12.00PM Close with sausage sizzle lunch.

Enquiries: George Ganzenmuller, Ripley Valley RFB Mob. 0417 710 706

